

windy, so the charter was on. We all turned-up in our warmest winter gear, and with huge anticipation, boarded the mighty West Wind charter boat at St Kilda Marina.

Reports so far had been that the snapper catches had been scrappy and inconsistent, but we still had hope.

Enthusiasm reigned. Regardless of the rough, cold, and wet conditions, our spirits were high.

Every catch was met with cheers and excitement, but the snapper eluded us. Pinkies and flatties abounded, although most were under-sized and returned to fatten-up for next year.

We all enjoyed and appreciated the hot BBQ breakfast cooked by our Skipper, while we shared stories of 'the ones that got away'. It was a great way for APYAC members to get to know more about the people whose faces they see regularly around the club,
